Toolday 2008!

The date for Toolday has changed! Due to a conflict in schedules with our host, Toolday will be on Saturday, February 23rd, 2008 at Hagen Hall (in Minnesota State University Moorhead) from 9:00AM to about 3:00PM (or until the tools are done!). We will be on the main floor, in room 110. A map to Hagen Hall is on the website, and will be included with the mailing, for those that do not get there notice electronically. There is a parking lot just to the north of Hagen Hall, you can park there and enter using the doors on the north side of the building. Lunch will be provided. Be sure to come and help for the day. This is our only fundraiser, and you will get to make some great tools!
